THE SEXESOFTHESTRAWBERRY . Mr. Longworth, the veteran cultivator of Cincinnati, in a recent letter to the public gives an account of the manner in which he, gives an account of the manner in which he, made the discovery of pistillate and staminate plants among strawberries.—An illiterate market woman beat him in raising strawberries for market, and became his teacher. She throw out a large part of her plants, and, on examining them, he tound they had anthors, while the larger part of those retained had only pistils, Just enough of the males were retained to fertilize the pistillate plants. This was the foundation of a new method of strawberry culture, which has revolution-

This was the foundation of a new method of strawborry culture, which has revolution-ized the practice of the growers of this fruit in Europe and America. It has led to hybridizing, and to the originating of nearly all the popular varieties now cultivated.—
The whole tribe of seedlings came of the practice of this unlettered fruit grower in Ohio. The prize strawberries of Cheananti are the result of judicious crossing, for the purpose of obtaining new varieties. Hovey's Seedling was impregnated with the largest English hermaphrodite, and, of the great number of seedlings produced, the largest English hermaphrodite, and, of the great number of seedlings produced, the Prolific, the Superior, and the Extra Red, were deemed worthy of cultivation. These are abundent bearers of excellent large fruit. A hint from Mr. Longworth's experience will be of service to all growers of this delicious fruit: "I mix with my rich garden mould one half of the poorest and stiffest clay I can find. The result is, plants of a much larger growth, that stand dry weather, bear more and larger fruit, and the plants are never thrown out of the ground in the spring, when the ground thaws.—New York Times.

Geing to the Dogs.

The great quick trumpeter of nonsense falsehood, and its own emptiness—we mean Bennett's Herald-after opposing Mr. Bu change's elevation, tooth and nail, during the Presidential convess, and pretending to be not a whit behind the very chiefest of Old Buck's supporters since his election, has finally concluded that "perhaps it is best to let the demoralized Democracy "go to the Dogs."

That the Sham Democracy is sufficiently and hopelessly "demoralized," is true enough, goodness knows-and that it is pretty surely and rapidly on its way "to the dogs," we think there are good reasons to believe. But knowing, as we do, the profilgate and vicious character of the party, it may not be amiss at this time, to suggest the inquiry-will "the dogs take it?" Suppose the party to have reached the destruction which Bennett has indicated, will those sagacious, honest and faithful animals-"the dogs"-so far disgrace themselves as to "take" it? With the exception, perhaps of a few of the smartest and bravest of the Democratic slave-hounds, for whom the "dogs" might be supposed to have some feelings of affinity, we might be inclined to doubt it, and even these poor creatures the "dogs" might fairly regard as trespassers and poachers upon their own domain. So, then really seems to be no certainty that "the dogs" would "take" the Sham Democracy even if it were sent to them to-day. The wiser and graver characters of the canine race would probably shake their dogs heads, and say, "Bow-wow, master Bennett! can't you send us not quite so bad a

But, while our hand is in, we think it proper to add, that the N. Y. Herald is about the best paper in the world that could decently and consistently talk of sending to "the dogs" a party that has done so much for it. And, bad as is the party, it is quite as good as Bennett or his paper, any day If the Democracy are "demoralized,' so is the Herald,-grossly, shamefully, notoriously so. If the Democracy ought to "go to the dogs," the Herald ought to go, as Judas did, to its "own place"-and that is certainly not among those who have any regard for truth, decency or morality. If the Democracy is a quack party, always making false professions, vain, boastful, and trencherous to truth and freedom-is not the Herald consciously and constantly guilty of :all these things? But the question is idle, -for it could not be expected to receive from the accused any but a false reply.

The flippant ignorance and reckless false hood of the Heraid are only and duly matched by its towering self-concent and disgusting vanity. These latter qualities we have never seen better described than in a little piece by that sterling English poet, the late James Montgomery, entitled the " Water Wagtail." If the reader will get Montgomery's poems, and read the article he will see Beanett's Herald in all its glory

THE INSURRECTION IN INDIA.following is an extract from a letter from Dr. Duff in the New York Observer:

"Nearly half the native army is in a state of secret or open mutiny, and the other half known to be disaffected. But this is not all; the populace generally is known to be more or less disaffected. You see, then nothing but some gracious and signal inter-position of the God of Providence seems competent now to save our empire in India And if there be a general rising—as any day may be—the probability is that not an Eu-ropean life will anywhere escape the univer-Bal and indiscriminate massacre.

IMPORTANT TO AGRICULTURALISTS .- A gardner at Glasgow practices a mode of de-stroying catenjilars, which he discovered by accident. A piece of woollen rag had been blown by the wind into a currant bush; and when taken out, was found covered by the leaf-devouring insects. He immediately placed pieces of woollen cloth in every hush in his garden, and found next day that the caterpillars had universally taken to them for shelter. In this way he destroys many thousands every morning.—Bell's Weekly Messenger.

LOCAL NEWS.

A few weeks ago we received from Col. Carr, the commanding officer of the 'Newport Artillery," a copy of a little book ust published, containing the Charter and By-Laws of that company, together with a somulete list of its members from the date of its organization in 1741 up to the present year. Unfortunately this book was mislaid for several days, or we should gladly have noticed its recention with greater promptuess. We hasten to offer our hearty though tardy thanks to the "Ancient and Honorable" Corps for the kindness of its attention. So faithful and reliable a military company as the "Artillery" deserves, and of right may claim, the highest praises from all the journals of this State.

Upon glancing over the names recorded in the latter pages of this book, we can but be struck with the elevated character of the departed members. Gentlemen whose deeds have won for them the applause of History, were the founders and promoters of the existence and interests of this association, whose prosperous years now amount to nearly a century and a quarter in mumher. We cheerfully and carnestly call upon the young men of to-day, to support the "Old Artillery," in whose reputation and advancement their fathers cherished a worthy pride.

The following artists of Musical celebrity will be in this city soon, and will no doubt give one or more concerts :-

Md. Anne de la Grange, Signor Brigno-E. Signor Amodio, Mr. Thalberg, Mad. Angri, Mr. Strakosh, Herr Mollenhauer, Mad. Bostwick, Mad. Spatzeck, Ole Bull with his company, and last but not least the Buckley Serenaders from New York.

The following music which we no iced in Saturday's paper was published by O. Ditson & Co. and is for sale at Dr. Woods City Music Store, It was credited to Mr. Ward Saturday, by mistake.

"Lajollie fille du Perth" by Duvernoy is one of the most beautiful romances that we have ever heard.

Two preludes and fuges, by Sebastian Bach, these are intended by the composer as studies for the more advanced pupils, and are considered by most music-masters as the finest we have.

"The Emily polka" by Mrs. Wm. Garret, and the Passagas-awaking polka by $\, B. \, \, E. \,$ S. are two very pretty Polkas, especially the Emily; it has been played by the Germania serenade band with great success.

"La fille du regiment," arranged for four hands. This does not need anything said in its prsise, as the opera is so well known and appreciated by all lovers of good music,

"Come into the Garden, Mand," by M. W. Balfe, "Florence May," by E. A. Hosmer, and "Sisters, now our "song we waken." by E. Ives. Jr. The first of these songs has the charm of being original. We never heard anything like it before. The poetry by Alfred Tennyson, is quite as much so as the music.

Correspondence of the Daily News. New York, July 24, 1857.

Mr. Editor :-- One of the strangest of the many strange things that have lately happened in this quarter, is the fact that Mayor Wood has at length taken his seat as a member of the Metropolitan Police Commissioners-which body he is, by virtue of his office, a lawful member, and the Mayor of Brooklyn another, who has also taken his seat with the Board.

These gentlemen having first united with the Board since Mr. Draper's resignation. and Mr. Cholwell being it is said, favorably disposed to the two Mayors, speculation is very busy as to what will be the upshot of this state of things. Mayor Wood, having carried on his warfare, against the new Board with great vigor, down to the date of the decision against him by the Court of Appeals, it was hardly to have been expeeted that he would attend any meeting of he same, notwithstanding he was a nominal member. But Sir Fernando is commonly understood to be an arch political manager; and some of those who think they can see a good way into a millstone, look very knowing, and profess to be perfeetly sure that he will have the entire control of the Board and of the l'olice in less than no time! May be so, and may-be not : we shall see.

The cruel murder of Policeman Anderson, by the Italian burglar, Canngemi, on Tuesday morning, produced a deep and almost savage impression upon all classes of our citizens. Mr. Anderson was well known and greatly esteemed for his manly and generous qualities-and his friends could scarcely be prevented from taking swift and signal vengeance upon his murderer, whose life will ultimately and quite certainly be the forfeit.

In this, as in nearly every case of a capital crime, and in fully nine-tenths of the endless arrests for robbery, larceny, intoxication, assault and battery, in this city, the culprit is a foreigner-born and reared beyoud the sea. Mobs and riots are almost avariably found, on examination, to be traceable to the same source; and thus our ospitals, prisons, almshouses, and the exsenses of criminal justice, are built and suported by huge taxation of our virtuous and ndustrious native citizens, for the benefit of parcel of foreign vagabonds, whose votes ac almost invariably given to the Demoratic' champions of free liquor, which helps all the while to perpetuate and increase the frightful mischief. When shall we have a efficient and adequate remody. P

The delightful entanglement at the Street Commissioner's office is not yet disentangled, though I believe Mr. Devlin has been released from durance vile, in Eldridge street, either on bail, habeas corpus, or some other contrivance.

Did you observe the shocking tragedy, or rather series of tragedies, perpetrated by the wretched Loefner at Cincinnati, at 4 o'clock last Tuesday morning ! about the same hour that Policeman Anderson was so cruelly murdered? Locher was also a foreigner, and in a fit of jenlousy destroyed his wife and her supposed paramour, a wealthy neighbor, fired the latter's dwelling, and concluding by attempting his own life, in which he nearly succeeded. The land is filled with violence and bloodshed by foreign ruffians and assassins. The nations that have no training, either moral, intellectual, or what is fit to be called religious, ought no longer to be permitted to spew their superahundance of vice, crime and pauperism upon our shores.

The late arrivals from Europe bring in telligence of a startling nature from Southern Asia. Tired of the British yoke, the native regiments in Hindostan have revolted, and anarchy and confusion prevail throughout a vast extent of the Anglo-Indion empire. Massacres of European residents had been perpetrated in several places, and it was feared that the British settlements and authority would be wholly exterminated. The rage of the Mohammedans and idolaters was implacable and furious in the extreme.

After many sultry days, we had yesterday and lust night refreshing rains, with some good accompaniments of sky artillery. If you shall deem this letter desultory, let me make it a little more so,by adding a triffing epigram upon Mayor Wood, invented by a friend of ours, a day or two after the late decision against His Honor by the Court of Appeals, in the case of the new Police act

FEHNANDY dear! your hopes are crossed,
Your milk is spitt—your cake is doughYour race is run—your case is lost—
You'd better take your hat and go!

Well, after chewing the end of disappoint nent for about three weeks, the Prince of the Plug-Uglies "took his hat," day before yesterday, and walked over to the hall of the Metropolitan Police Commissioners, and took his seat as a member of the Board .-A cool operation that, for a warm day Don't you think so, Mr. Editor ?

RAMBLER.

Louis Napoleon.

We saw, yesterday, in a French paper, a descriptoin of an elegant Sabbath communion service plate, presented by the present Emperor of the French to Bishop Bayley, of Newark, or "Belley," as the Bordeaux editor persisted in recording the name of the Bishop.

The letter enclosing the extract spoke of events in France as quite unstable. There is, it is said, notwithstanding the outside quiet and order, a deep dissatisfaction at the bottom of things. The attempts upon the life of the Emperor are many in number, more than are recorded in print.

The recent election of the Emperor, however, would seem to indicate a different state of facts. Only nine years ago, the 15th of last month, it will be remembered that a great sensation was produced in the National Assembly of France by an announcement from the President's chair, that he had received a letter from the citizen Ronaparte, just then elected to the National Assembly. In answer to loud cries of " Read it! Read it!" the President read this letter, dated London, 14th of June, 1848: dated London, 14th of June, 1848:

"Mr. President—I was upon the point of leaving to repair to my post, when I learned that my election is affording a pretext to deplorable troubles and fatal errors. I did not seek the honor of being a representative of the people, because I was aware of the injurious suspicious which were entertained with regard to me. Still less would I seek power. If the people were to impose daties upon me, I should know how to perform them. (Tumultuous agitation here interrupted the reading of the letter). But I disavow all those who impute to me ambitious intentions which I have not. letter). But I disavow all those who impute to me ambitions intentions which I have not. My name is a symbol of order, of nationality, of glory; and it would be with tho most lively grief that I should see it made use of to increase the troubles and dissensions of the courtry. To avoid such an evil, I would prefer to remain in exile. I am ready for all sacrifices to secure the happiness of France. Have the goodness, Mr. President, to communicate my letter to the Assembly. I send you a copy of my thanks to the electors. Receive the expression of my distinguished sentiments. "Louis Napoleon Bonaparte."

The livelist agitation succeeded, which

The livelinst agitation succeeded, which was followed by a profound silence, when they observed approaching the tribune Gen. Cavaignae, Minister of War.

Cavaignac, Minister of War.

"Citizen Representatives," said he, "a member of the government told you lately that one man alone persisted in obtaining silence upon the state of the Republic. The silence kas just been broken. My emution does not permit me to express myself as I would my whole thought; but my first remark touching this document, which becomes historical, is that the word Republic does not uppear it. (Hear! hear!) I conflue myself to signalizing this document to the attention of the Assembly, to the attention and the remembrance of the whale action."

"Vine by Republicage!" burst from all

" Vice la Republique!" burst from all sides. "Down with all pretenders!"

Another speaker, Mr. Beaume, pro-nounced Napoleon's letter a "declaration of war by a pretender, and called the wri-ter an impudent young man." M. Thourit, who followed M. Beaume, directed the attention of the Assembly to this phrase:—
"If the people were to impose duties on me, I should know how to perform them."
M. Thouret said: "The duties which the people impose upon him, are those of representative. No others are imposed upon him.

A Member-" He deems those duties to

M. Thouret—"The phrase is an appeal to revolt. Consequently, I propose that we immediately resolve that Louis Bonaparte is banished from the Republic."

Immense confusion followed and the Asadjourned, amidst cries of Vive la Republique. Thus it will be seen that Cavaignne, now opposition candidate in Paris, and the only consistent Republican in France, penetrated from the first, the pur-poses of Louis Napoleon. The previous illustrious services of this General just reelected to the Assembly have preserved his name from extinction, but what has become of M. Thouret, who proposed to banish Bonaparte from the Republic, or M. Bename, who called him "an impudent young man?"-N. Y. Express.

ALPINE HAIR BALM

Restoring Gray Hair to Its Original Color.

WARRANTED to cure Baldness, Scurf Daudruff, itching and all diseases of the skin. This Balm gives the scalp a new and healthy action; restores the coloring matter to the roots of the Hair, which passes through the Hair, and gives it a natural solor without the use of Hair Dyc.

Hundreds of preparations have been introduced, pretending to preserve the Hair and keep it from falling off, composed of Oils, Alcohol and other deleterious materials, and all to no use. Hair Dycs have been introduced that do not give the Hair a natural color, besides being troublesome to use. This Balm is not a Dyc. Knowing that a preparation was heeded to do what was required for the Hair, the proprietor was induced to experiment until be could obtain an article that would be the exact remedy. It is soothing and emollient allays all irritation of the scalp, thereby stopping that turubhosome itching, it cures Dandfulf and Seurf, and when the Hair has turned ping that troublesome (tehing, It cures Dand-ruff and Seurf, and when the Hair has turned gray it will bring it back to its original color be it Black, Brown or Auburn. It makes the Hair soft and glossy—prevents it from Islling off, as will be seen by using this Balm for only a few days—life will, be given to the roots of the Hair, and growth will soon appear.— Growth does not take place at the end of the of the Hair, and growth will soon appear.—
Growth loes not take place at the end of the Hair, as will be seen in persons who have their Hair dyed. If you examine gray hair that has been eared for a week, you will find towards the roots that the hair has come out gray, hence it is necessary to have the fluid at the roots of the hair healthy, that the whole hair may be a natural color. Each hair hes a root in the skin, and is of itself a hellow, gray tube, through which there is a constant circulation of the pigacent from the root.—
When this pigmentor coloring matter dies out, it leaves the hair hollow and it becomes gray. To invent a Bahn that would produce this pigment has become the study of the proprietur. The discovery of the Alpine Hair Bahn will do it. It will bring the Hair to its natural color by making anew the coloring matter in the routs of the hair.

It is a mistaken notion that oil or grease will restore the hair, as nothing can be more injurious. The Alpine Hair Bahn, will restore the skin and save the hair of those who have been sick with fever or any discass.

FOR THE HAIR.

The Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PROFESSOR WOOD offers for sale perfect HAUR RESTORATIVE. It in a short time restore the Hair, which become gray prematurely, to its original colophing in the first out where it is gone, and arrest when it is falling off—cleanse the head of dandruff and itchings-remove all cutaneous remptions, and render the scalp perfectly healthy, by restoring the secretive organs to their original vigor and strength, and time supply nutriment and coloring matter to the roots. It does not bye the bair, but is, in short a perfect Hair Invigorator and Tanic.

To the young, who as much atmire the beautiful locks and ringlet, he feels that he will be pardoned if he offers the advice suggested by long study and extensive observation. It is to discard all cologue and stimulating oil for the hair, and keep always upon the toile; a buttle of the Restorative for occasional use and we can safely predict, that henceforth silver locks will be upon bald heads. Let the dark eye be ever so pierning,—and the teeth be those of peart—still, if the natural flunds be withheld from the hair, and nonsequence becomes first dead and harsh, hen gray, or falls off nature will be robbed of more than half its charms; as it is a sovereign remedy for those who are gray at well as those who are ladd, all must see the propriety of making only such application to the hair and scalp as is calculated to preserve bath in a healthy stare.

The testin-tonials below give prinof that name is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTACES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has animidant reason to believe, and can proteg that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved hiventors.

During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Baston did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of procuring Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity and success. I regar Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more expable of patting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favoratheromisderation at the the Patent Office.
